

Unit 2 Book or Poem Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Additional Tier II Words
Amos and Boris (William Steig)	miserable	very unhappy, uncomfortable	awful grim	mending savage ambitions	a strong desire to do something	dreams hopes	luminous evaded leisurely	unhurried, slow	sluggish	immense leisurely The Raft (Jim LaMarche)	"eyes in the back of her head"	can see everything	aware	hovering ancient preened cluttered	to fill with a collection of things	mess jumbled	nuzzle disgusted	to feel strong dislike or illness, out of patience with	fed up Sarah, Plain and Tall (Patricia MacLachlan) Chapters 1-3	plain	not complicated or fancy, without anything extra	simple	horrid harshly wretched	terrible, very bad	evil	advertisement feisty pesky	annoying	bothersome, disturbing The Cod's Tale (Mark Kurlansky and S.D. Schindler)	enabled	to make possible, to make able	allow permit	prosperous expelled plentiful	more than enough	abundant	permanent juvenile	childish	adolescent Sleepy Pearl (Francis Gorman Risser)	raging	to be angry	furious	rave heedless	goofing off, thoughtless	careless rant	to speak or complain loudly	rave

Poem: The Waves (Gertrude M. Jones)	clever	quick at understanding	intelligent	rippling crested	to reach the top of something	peak	streaming distraught	troubled, overcome with grief, very upset	troubled agitated	lapping harbor