

Unit 4 Poem or Book Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Additional Tier II Words
Across Five Aprils By Irene Hunt Chapter 1	prosperous pg. 12	successful in business, flourishing:	wealthy well-off	despised pg. 10 melancholy pg. 6 monotonous pg. 13	having little or no variety	unchanged aloofness pg. 18	at a distance; removed	distance Across Five Aprils By Irene Hunt Chapter 2	seething pg. 30	extremely angry, trembling with rage	boil fume fatigue pg. 33	extreme physical or mental tiredness or exhaustion	weariness inevitable pg. 34	something that is certain to happen	sure unavoidable Across Five Aprils By Irene Hunt Chapter 3	eloquence pg. 35	being good with words and expressing things in a pleasing or persuasive manner.	poise style fiasco pg. 36	something that is an utter and complete disaster	failure audible pg. 43	loud enough to be heard	clear plain The Star Spangled Banner Day 1	ramparts	type of defensive wall	support gallantly	showy and lively in manner	stately triumph	a victory or success	mastery

The Star Spangled Banner Day 2	haughty	proud in a snobbish way	arrogant reposes	to lie at rest or to rest in death	pease vauntingly	to boast; brag	swagger show off The Star Spangled Banner Day3	desolation	the state of being lonely or dreary	ruin wreck refuge	a place of safety from danger and discomfort	shelter retreat preserved	to keep from harm	danger evil Bull Run By Paul Fleischman Lilly Malloy	spared	to save or prevent from harm	forbear forgive	Minnesota is as flat as a cracker.
	gallant	brave, noble or polite	noble courage thrashing	to beat severely, whip	attack Bull Run By Paul Fleischman Toby Boyce	hot-footed	to move quickly	speed monstrous	exceptionally large	enormous huge ambled	to walk in a slow, easy manner	wander drift If You Lived at the Time of the Civil War By Kay Moore and Anni Matsick	enlisted	to join the military voluntarily	register sign up	compromise blockading	to close off an area to stop supplies and communication	bar siege resigned	to choose to leave one's job or post	quit leave	