

Unit 5 Poem or Book Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Additional Tier II Words
The Nursery "Alice" By Lewis Carroll and John Tenniel	cross	angry, bad-tempered	irritable jumpy elegant	stylish in appearance, graceful, refined	tasteful classic prim	very proper, formal in manner	tidy orderly The Spider and the Fly Poem by Mary Howitt Day 1	vain	overly concerned with one's own looks,	proud arrogant weary	feeling very tired or fatigued	exhausted overworked fiercely	extremely strong	powerful The Spider and the Fly Poem by Mary Howitt Day 2	gauzy	very thin, light material with very small holes	sheer filmy subtle	not easy to sense, not obvious	indirect hither	to or toward this place The Spider and the Fly Poem by Mary Howitt Day 3	wily	with lots of tricks	cunning shrewd idle	doing nothing	motionless unoccupied heed	to follow the advice of	pay attention notice

My Librarian is a Camel: How Books are Brought to Children Around the World By Margriet Ruurs	inspire	to cause to work hard or be creative, to motivate, stimulate	spark encourage passionate	having or showing strong feelings, strong emotions	excited emotional remote	referring to a far-away place or time	far-off Tis the Voice of the Lobster By Lewis Carroll	contemptuous	someone who is full of hatred for someone or something.	scornful disrespectful timid	shy and fearful	weak fearful tremulous	shaking, fearful	shy cowardly	