

Unit 1 Book Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Spanish Cognates	Additional Tier II Words
Red, Green, Blue: A First Book of Colors (Alison Jay)	stout	A solid thick body			mend swift merry bare fled	Ran away
	fetches	To go after something and bring it back If Kisses Were Colors (Janet Lawler, Alison Jay)	flashes	Turn on and off quickly			lined bouquet sparkling	To reflect light like glitter streak	Something moving very fast Matisse the King of Color (Laurence Anholt)	teased	Annoy (To bother someone)			proper twinkly delighted exactly floating gloomy ordinary	Normal
	crept	To move slowly and carefully like you are sneaking up on someone Clang! Clang! Beep! Beep!: Listen to the City (Robert Burleigh and Beppe Giacobbe)	strutting	To walk proudly with your chest stuck out			stinging roaring rocking cutting short streaming creeping beaming	When your face shows you are full of happiness drifting	To move slowly and smoothly like you are floating on river And the Dish Ran Away with the Spoon (Janet Stevens and Susan Stevens Crummel)	smirked	To smile but not mean it			mumbled dog-tired silvery skinny glared rhyme mutter crept stammered chops grumbled	Unhappy sounds or words coming out of your mouth (grrrr...) bolted	Ran away from quickly

Rap a Tap Tap, Here's Bojangles -Think of That! (Leo and Diane Dillon)	pleasure	A happy feeling			briefly seldom	Not often			passion fame	Famous; well-known			