7. “We’ve been hoping for eleven years that she’d send word or come home, and she finally has. Looks to me like she sent us the best word we’ve had in years.” Miss Thomas smiled at me and I know she was trying to say I was the word that my momma had sent to them. She said, “Wait here for one second, precious. I’ve got to go to my room for something.” (Chapter 19)

8. That ornery old man upstairs is very, very hurt right now and I just can’t say where he’s going to land after this news gets through blowing him around. (Chapter 19)

9. “I told the fellas how hard you’ve been hitting that recorded and how proud I was of you, so we put a couple of nickels together”—he acted like he was yelling into the other room—“and Lord knows on the peanuts we get it was a real sacrifice.” (Chapter 19)
