

Family Lessons

An elephant uses its trunk to do many things. It learns how from its family.

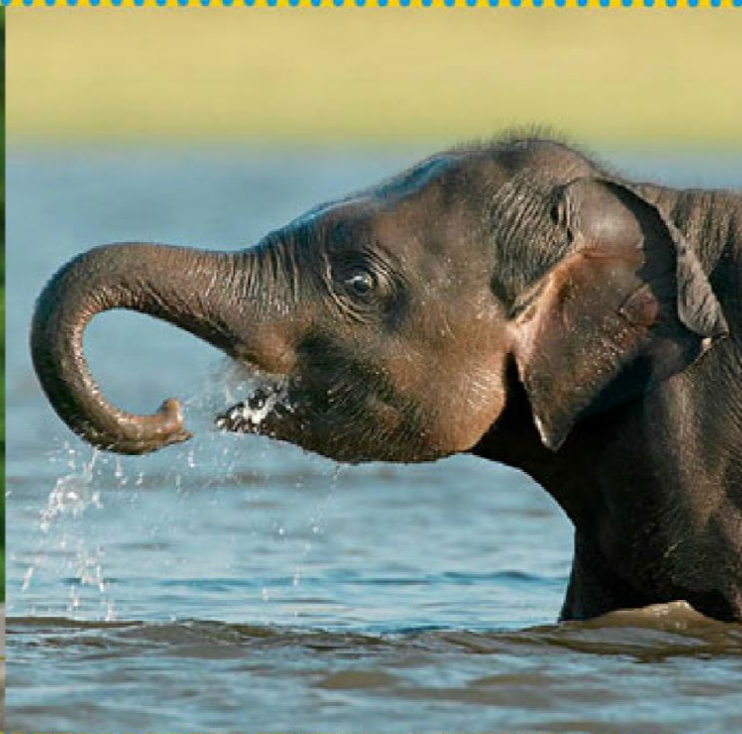

A baby elephant lives with its mother, sisters, and aunts.

They teach the baby. It learns how to use its trunk like a tool.

The baby learns to use its trunk like a spoon. Its trunk picks up food.

The baby learns to use its trunk like a hose. Its trunk sprays water into its mouth.

 The baby learns to use its trunk to spray dust. The dust bath helps it stay cool.

 The baby learns to use its trunk to play. The baby is learning its lessons.