

 toucan

Long Beak, Short Beak

 flycatcher Birds have beaks. One bird has a long beak. It can pick up fruit. One bird has a short beak. It can catch flies.

 flamingo

 Birds have two legs. This bird has long legs. It takes big steps. It can use its legs to stand in deep water.

 penguin

 This bird has short legs. It takes small steps on land. It can use its legs to walk to the sea. Then it swims.

 hummingbird

 Birds have tail feathers. This bird has long tail feathers. It shows off to other birds with its tail feathers.

 kingfisher

 This bird has short tail feathers. It flies quickly. It uses its tail feathers to slow down. Then it lands on a branch.

 owl

 Birds have wings. This bird has long wings. They are big and soft. The bird flaps its wings slowly. It flies quietly.

 hummingbird

 Bird Fact:
Hummingbirds can fly forward, backward, and upside down.

 This bird has short wings. It flaps its wings quickly. It can fly in one place to drink from small flowers.