

Unit 4 Book Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Spanish Cognates	Additional Tier II Words
Dear Mr. Rosenwald (1920) (Carole Boston Weatherford)	fretting	to worry	fluster		fidgiting rally sprouted beamed hurdle	an obstacle; something that stands in the way clammy	moist, damp	slimey gloomy Henry's Freedom Box: A True Story from the Underground Railroad (1849) (Ellen Levine and Kadir Nelson)	soared	to fly through the air with no difficulty			twisted delivered arranged swirled	to move in a twisting or turning motion pride	to feel good about yourself	confidence Sit-In: How Four Friends Stood Up by Sitting Down (1960) (Andrea D. and Brian Pinkney)	budge	to move a little	bend change		bitter committed loafing resist protests	a complaint	challenge motivated	to give a reason to do something	suggest persuade

Moses: When Harriet Tubman Led Her People to Freedom (c.1820-1913) (Carole Boston Weatherford and Kadir Nelson)	haven	a place of safety	retreat shelter		gazes murmurs chance creeps flutters startled wobbles shun	to keep away from; avoid	reject refuse snub		lulls snarl ceases babbling woes	great suffering from loss saddness problems or hardship	sadness burden disaster		churns glimpsed nabbing dreaded The Other Side (1950s) (Jacqueline Woodson and E.B. Lewis)	damp	a little wet stretched	to make a body part longer by reaching out to make longer or wider by pulling Martin's Big Words (Doreen Rappaport)	blistering	very intense hurts like a burn convinced	to make a person agree with you to make a person believe something protested	To complain about or object to something that you feel is wrong			