

Unit 6 Poem or Book Title	Selected Tier II Words	Kid Friendly Definition	Related Words	Additional Tier II Words
My Father's Dragon (Ruth Stiles Gannett)	obliged (p.1)	to help or do a favor for	assist aid	extraordinary (p.26) contradict (p.32) suspicious (p.40) dignified (p.53) punctual (p.15)	on time or not late	prompt timely ordinarily (p.46)	usually or as a rule	generally regularly Boy, Were We Wrong About Dinosaurs! (Kathleen V. Kudlinski)	clumsy	someone or something that moves without skill and without ease	ungraceful awkward graceful	beautiful, well-formed and moves with ease	smooth flowing gradually	happening slowly or by small steps	continuous progressive Poem: Aventures of Isabel by Ogden Nash	ravenous	extremely hungry	famished	scurry cavernous zwieback troublesome rancor	long-lasting intense feeling of dislike	hatred horrid	something that is unpleasant or disagreeable	hideous offensive

Favorite Greek Myths (Mary Pope Osborne) *The Story of Minerva and Arachne	exquisite	someone or something that is beautiful, delicate and of the highest quality	dainty lovely	nymph scorn gnarled	twisted with a rough surface	rugged distorted	conceit arrogance defiant	someone or something that does not behave or act in a way that is asked or expected	rebellious disobedient
Favorite Greek Myths (Mary Pope Osborne) *The Story of Orpheus and Eurydice	dweller	to make one's home	reside    live	underworld condition resited vain	thinking very highly of oneself	conceited arrogant barred	something was prevented from happening, or that something like metal or wood was placed over a door to prevent entry	block barricade
Favorite Greek Myths (Mary Pope Osborne) *The Story of Echo Narcissus	jovial	full of playful, good humor; happy	joyful	humiliated embrace tending quench yearned	to long for; to feel a need for someone or something	desired desolate	empty of people; depressed, lonely or sad	bare empty	